

"I was personally invited to Alpha by a friend. The experience was amazing and gave me a better understanding of my faith. I felt so comfortable throughout the sessions and never felt judged."

"Alpha was like a compass, that one thing I needed on my faith journey in life. It touches you wherever you are in life, and the beauty is you will have your own unique experience."

~Clara~

"I found Alpha a haven where I could share my thoughts and others like me would feel openness and understanding without judgements. It was also a great place to share a meal together and from where I am this means "home"!"
